Dear Mr. McComb:

I am in receipt of your second request for additional time to submit the information requested in our June 22, 2015, letter.

However, given the time elapsed since our request for additional information, I am going to proceed to withdraw your permit application from processing.

This action will not prejudice your future permit requests regarding this or any other project. We will reinitiate processing and evaluation of your permit application, once the information requested in our June 22, 2015 is submitted; provided there are no changes in our Regulatory procedures and the information is submitted within a reasonable timeframe.

Please let me know if you have comments or questions in this regard.

Cordially,

José A. Cedeño-Maldonado
Project Manager
